

Albania

Kurt & Stephanie

Hannah, Sarah & Joel

Plagenhoef

The Plagenhoef family is reaching lost Albanians who have never heard, planting churches where they have never been, training pastors where they are none, and touching the poor with Christ's compassion. In 1995, Kurt and Stephanie Plagenhoef went to Albania, a normally Muslim gospel where Christ was not known.

Vision Statement:

To reach lost Albanians who have never heard, plant churches where they have never been, train pastors to go where there are none, and touch the unreached poor with Christ's compassion.

Bible School:

In Albania the Plagenhoef's are leading the first Pentecostal Bible school in the country- Evangelical Theological College (ETC)- which they started in 2003 in the capital city, Tirana. ETC dedicated its own building on September 24, 2007. The three story, 13,000 sq. foot facility includes classrooms, library, internet center, offices, cafeteria and dormitory which can house up to forty people.