

www.GravelysGoGlobal.com

Baby Blueberry

We've got big news to report: We're expecting! Amanda is 4 months along in the production of Gravelly 3.0, who we just found out is going to be a boy! Aidan and Gabriel are excited to have a 3rd tag team partner to help out in wrestling matches with Dad, and have already started proposing baby names. So far, "Blueberry" and "Tiny" have been their top suggestions. Let's just say we're still considering the question. ;-)

Divine Interruptions

One day recently, while studying the Bible with a student in a coffee shop, I was approached by a woman wearing a hijab, who asked for some info about my Bible. I was delighted to not only give her info, but the Bible as well, pointing her to the passages about Jesus.

Recently we've been having increased opportunities to share with Muslim students.

Another moment: while out giving away coffee and sharing one Tuesday, a stylish young man, "Danny", stopped to talk. Of Turkish origins, he explained that he came from a (over)

Branching Out

God is leading us to expand our outreach in Brussels. For a long time, we've felt that we need to have 3 or 4 groups in Brussels in order to reach out to students who are spread across the city.

With that in mind, we are happy to announce the launching of our second "branch"!

With the help of Boys and Girls Missions funds from the AG, we've rented a room two blocks from the largest campus in Brussels, and had our first gathering 3 weeks ago. Although we're starting over with 5 or 6 students, it's been a blast so far!

We've left the "original" group under the leadership of the students and SFC interns that we've been discipling for the last several years, and they are doing a great job! They are growing in their leadership, and are excited to tell us how the group is still going well with 30+ gathering every time. Please pray that the Lord would "add to our numbers daily those who are being saved." (Acts 2:47)